Dear James,

I am writing you this note to tell you how pleased I was with your legal services.

During our meetings, you discussed options, made recommendations, and took all the time I needed to answer my questions. I especially appreciated how accessible you were by phone. You never made false promises, but diligently pursued our best interests.

During the lengthy legal process, I always felt I had someone on my side who had the knowledge and expertise to reach a favorable outcome. It took so much stress off my shoulders.

Your services were invaluable and I would not hesitate to recommend you to others.

Sincerely,

Jeanette J. [redacted]
